

The First Grove Street Chapel

By 1823 the first chapel in Meeting-house Lane was considered to be too small for the requirements of the congregation.

At that time there was a Chapel membership of 250 and a circuit membership of 820. It was decided that a new building should be erected, and a piece of land was acquired in Newgate Street, later renamed Grove Street.

The new chapel seated 600 people. A house was built on either side to accommodate the two circuit ministers and their families.

The cost of the scheme was £2,694 4s 9d, of which £408 18s 1d was raised by subscriptions ranging from 2 shillings to £21.

The record records the individuals who contributed.
